Data Usage

Not all broadband plans are suitable for you to stream content. To stream video via the Website you need a minimum speed of 3Mbps. You are responsible for checking with your internet service provider as to whether your plan is suitable.

You are responsible for paying for your personal broadband connection, including any data charges.

The content you stream via the Website may be metered by your internet service provider, and counted towards any usage allowance you have and/or be charged to you by your provider.

Streaming quality varies depending on broadband connection speed. The Website uses an adaptive bitrate system that automatically adjusts the quality of the stream based on the device capability and quality of your broadband connection to start the streams as quickly as possible and to minimize buffering to the extent possible in the context of all the various broadband plans our customers have. However, we are not responsible for buffering which may occur if your broadband plan is not suitable (ie: does not have the minimum speed of 3Mbps).

Advertising

You acknowledge that there may be advertising displayed as part of the Website, providing you information regarding products and services. This advertising may be in the form of display advertising on the Website, and/ or pre-roll advertising (which appears before you start watching content), and/ or mid-roll advertising (which appears during your viewing of the content).

To the maximum extent permitted by law, in no event will Pacific or its Associated Entities nor its third party licensors be liable for any loss or damage, including without limitation direct or indirect, special, incidental, or consequential damages, losses or expenses arising in connection with the Website, any linked site, the downloading of any software or in connection with any failure of performance, error, omission, interruption, defect, delay in operation or transmission, computer virus or line or system failure, even if Pacific or its Associated Entities are advised of the possibility of such damages, losses or expenses.

Nothing in these Terms removes or limits any rights that you have under existing laws or regulations and codes, including under Schedule 2 of the Consumer and Competition Act 2010 (Cth) ("Australian Consumer Law") and the various State and Territory fair trading laws, including for example that the services provided under these Terms are provided with due care and skill and the goods are fit for the purpose for which they are supplied and are of merchantable quality.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, all other terms, conditions and warranties, whether express or implied are expressly excluded. To the maximum extent permitted by law, liability under any condition or warranty which cannot be legally excluded is limited at Pacific's option to replacement or resupply of goods or services or payment for the same.
